

Exchange Students

YFU USA Quarterly School News Exchange - June 2010

YFU prepares young people for their responsibilities and opportunities in a changing, interdependent world.

YFU thanks all YFU hosting schools for engaging in global education!

When asked to “describe the most positive aspects of the YFU program at your school” here is what schools have told us...

- “The program allows our students the opportunity to learn about different cultures and experience another world without traveling.”
- “YFU students expose our small school to other cultures.”
- “The cultural conversations that occur in the classroom are the best part.”
- “YFU provides cultural exchange opportunities for our students which help them see the world beyond our community.”
- “It is an exceptional opportunity for students and community to experience a cultural exchange in our global economy!”

YFU Programs Can Prepare Your Students for their Future!

YFU programs can have far-reaching benefits throughout a person’s life. Here is what some alumni have said about the impact of exchange on their lives.

- “It gave me a love for traveling; I even pursued Travel and Tourism in college” – Elizabeth, Ecuador
- “I learned then that I wanted to do something with my life that allowed me to impact the world. I have chosen to teach English as a Second Language and write books” – Nicole, Denmark
- “It gave me a new perspective and self-reliance” – Brenden, Germany Congress Bundestag
- “It changed me forever on a personal level because my grandmother (YFU’s founder) instilled in me that anything is possible” - Deb
- “It brought me wonderful connections with students, volunteers, fellow volunteers who have become treasured friends” – Barb, Germany
- “It gave me confidence to have my own voice and to stand on my own” – Corey, Netherlands

Your school can become a provider of global education and promote global competence today by encouraging your families to host an international exchange student from Youth For Understanding (YFU) or to send their teenagers to study abroad for a summer, semester or year.

Youth For Understanding (YFU) exchange students have much to contribute to their host communities and are a valuable resource source of global knowledge.

We invite you to share information about Youth For Understanding programs with your staff, your student body, your student leaders, your PTA/PTO and local communities. We happily provide informational materials and other resources you may need. We have flyers, posters, brochures and more. Please call 1.800.872.0200 to speak to your local Field Director.
